TRADITIONAL EGG HUNT TO BE HELD THIS SATURDAY AT POPE JOHN PAUL II PARK IN DORCHESTER

The Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR) will host the annual Egg Hunt at Pope John Paul II Park in the Neponset section of Dorchester (Boston), this Saturday, March 19th, beginning at noon.

The event is co-sponsored by Phillips Candy House of Dorchester, and KISS-108 FM Radio, which will together provide entertainment for the entire family along with candy. In addition, there will be a special appearance by the DCR bunny.

“We’re very pleased to continue this local tradition, and given the harsh winter we’ve had to endure, we’d like to encourage anyone who wants to enjoy this family-friendly outing, to join us,” said DCR Acting Commissioner Stephen R. Pritchard.

To reach Pope John Paul II Park, exit the Expressway at Neponset Circle in Dorchester onto Gallivan/Morrissey Boulevard and follow the signs. Activities will take place rain or shine.
